¹ The names of the students involved have been redacted from the Exhibits in order to protect their anonymity.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America and the State of Tennessee that the foregoing is true and accurate.

Executed on February 1, 2016.
